1835. SIXTIETH MARRIAGE ANNIVERSARY.

Tuesday, June 25th, was a memorable day at the pastors old home on Pleasant Hill near Glenford, Perry County, Ohio. was the occassion of the sixtieth marriage anniversary of our parents Isaac and Rebecca Zartman. The celebration of this event had been under contemplation for more than a year past. Extensive preparations were made and in due time invitations were sent out to numerous relatives and friends far and near. Accompanied by Mrs. Zartman and daughter Josie, we left the city for Glenford on Monday night, June 24th, at 11.45 going by way of Ridgeville, Ind. and Columbus, Ohio. We were exceedingly fortunate, through the kindness of some of the conducters in holding the east bound train at Columbus, Ohio, to make our connections and arriving at Glenford about 9 a. m. on Tuesday morning. At Columbus Ohio, we were joined by cousin W. V. Zartman, wife and son Luke, and at Basil, Ohio, by Rev. G H. Leonard, D. D. At Glenford, carriages were awaiting our arrival and in a very short time we were conveyed over the hills to the old homestead, here we were greeted by fully one hundred friends who had already assembled to celebrate the day. Here were father and mother, brothers and sisters, nephews and nieces, uncles and aunts, cousins, friends, and neighbors.

Some of these friends we had not seen for many years. We found father and mother well and seemingly as young as they were ten years ago, when they celebrated their fiftieth anniversary, and as happy as on their marriage day sixty years ago, for now as then their happiness was complete.

At twelve o'clock it was announced that dinner was ready and the family was invited to come to the dinning room, where for fourty-four years, each day, the family table had been set. Upon this occassion, two long tables were set in the room, at the first table the family was seated, father and mother at the head of the table, the daughters and their husbands, the sons and their wives, each in their order of birth, at the other table were seated, uncles and aunts and other near relatives. Rev. Geo. H. Leonard, of Basil, Ohio, and old time honored and well beloved friend of the family, was requested to ask the blessing at this table, while the grand-children waited upon the guests. Many pleasant reminicences were recounted by the parents and children as they partook of this noonmeal. At the head of this table stood the brides cake, the gift of Rev. R. C. Zartman and wife, and on it were the dates, '35 and '95 and the names, Isaac and Rebecca. At the proper time, the bride of sixty years ago, took the knife and cut the cake. At the second seating of the tables, the grandchildren and other friends were the guests, Mr. P. E. Zartman of Dayton, Ohio, the eldest grandchild presided, and the grandson, Rev. Alpheus O. Swineheart, of Washington, Kansas, pronounced the blessing.

After dinner other relations and friends began to arrive, until one-hundred and eighty guests were present.

At about two o'clock, a public service was held on the west side of the house, under large trees with their branches reaching up to the large porch of the house. Here under these same trees, the anniversary services were held ten years ago. The services were continued fully three hours. The following was the program:

In the rendering of the above program, many things of interest, of humor and of sadness were said, at times loud and prolonged laughter were evoked, at other times, the people sat in tears and gave expression to their sorrows of heart. During the 60 years of the married life of Father and Mother Zartman, how many things transpired to rejoice their hearts, and the hearts of their friends, but alas; how many sad things have also occurred.

When the roll of the family was called, to one name their was no response, Levi Zartman, Born, July 20th, 1842, had departed this life, Dec. 24th, 1848. This was a fair little flower, that had grown in the mother's garden, but was early plucked and planted in the garden above.

Father stated in his address, that 81 years ago, the 4th of last March, he was born on the same section of land where he now resides, and that during his entire life he had not been away from the old home at any time for a longer period than four weeks. He gave some of the remenicences of his life, which were of great interest to the children and friends present.

Mother was born in an adjoining township, some three miles from the old homestead and was aged at her last birthday, May 21st, 79 years. The married life of Father and Mother has been signaly blessed and honored, they have enjoyed excellent health and the Lord has given them length of days and continued happiness, the fruitage of a christian life. Their children have grown up and many of their grand-children have already attained to the age of manhood and womanhood, and all have taken their places in the church and are active workers in the Lord's vineyard.

In the welcome address which was delivered by W. H. Parks, the husband of the youngest daughter in the family and who now resides on the old homestead, a very warm and cordial greeting was extended in behalf of the parents and children to all the relatives and friends present. The response was delivered by W. V. Zartman a nephew, of Columbus, Ohio. In his address he presented the chairman of the day with an iron hammer, which was forged many years ago by Grandfather Alexander Zartman, which was to be used as a gavel for the occassion. Hearty congratulations were extended to Father and Mother, sons and daughters, upon the celebration of such a rare event.

In the address "What of the ten years," given by Rev. R. C. Zartman, of Philadel-dhia, Pa., there was a brief exihit of the family history since the fiftieth anniversary. He stated that within these ten years, six grandchildren had been born, two of whom had already been called to the home above. Within these ten years, death had also claimed six uncles and four aunts and eleven cousins. There have been two marriages among the grandchildren and it was phophesied that in a very short time there would be some more accessions to the family by such a felicitous union of hearts.

In the address on "The Family," by the Pastor, we were asked by the programme committee to give some of the reminiscences of the family, which we were pleased to do. Father Zartman has been Justice of the Peace for more than fifty years and we recalled with pleasure some of the jury trials which were held at the old homestead and some of the marriage contracts which were consumated in the Squire's office. In the history of so large a family there was no want of reminicences both humorous and sad, for an address of many hours. Each member of the family had its own peculiar history, its haps and mishaps. One of the most gratifying exercises of the programme, was the duet by Father and Mother. Father had for many years been an instructor in music, and for fully fifty years led the singing at the old home church, and it was a great delight to the children and friends to hear his voice in the service of song again.

"The Tramps Story," by the grandson C. W. Foucht, of Chicago, was an amusing recital of an early experience which had at the old homestead and in which he and his younger brother Ira and his Grandfather, all played prominent parts.

Rev. Alpheus O. Swineheart, of Washington, Kan., a grandson, in his address in behalf of the grandchildren brought hearty congratulations to Grandfather and Grandmother and spoke of the high esteem in which they were held by their grandchildren because of the piety and christian example.

At the close of the service there was a season of general greeting and visiting. Many of the guests tarried until a late hour in the afternoon, it seemed the day was entirely to short and the people were loath to part with each other. For ourselves we wished the festivities, might have continued for several days. To us it seemed a foretaste of heavenly joy and bliss. We cannot hope to meet again as we met on that day. Even in one year hence, many may have completed life's journey and gone to the home beyond. The partings of this day were full of sadness, but we rejoice in the assurance that by and by we shall meet in the Father's house on high, where there shall be no more parting scenes and no more farewells shall be spoken. Our prayer is, that our kind Father above may yet add many years to the lives of our parents and that he may shelter us as a family and lead us by his own hand in the way of life and peace. Him we give all the praise for past benefits and blessings.

MRS. ZARTMAN and Josie are at present with Mrs. Zartman's parents, at Canton, Ohio. The pastor expects to join them in a short vacation at this place, the latter part of this month, July.

A NEW PASTORIAL CHARGE.

The Salem Reformed Church, which the pastor has been supplying for the past seven years has now been connected with the Waterloo and an adjoining congregation, thus constituting a now pastorial charge, with the town of Waterloo as its centre. We have been for a long time laboring and hoping to see this end consumated. The people of the Salem Church and of that community have always treated us very kindly and we have enjoyed our ministry among them; and the severance of the relationship between people and pastor, is one of mutual regret, but we feel it is the proper thing to do. It is impossible for a pastor from the city to serve this congregation, the distance being so great, with any degree of satisfaction to himself, or of any great profit to the church. With the present arrangement the pastor can devote every alternate sabbath to this church, and give the people ample pastoral care, and the congregation at the same time gives support to the new charge. Rev. Bogart has taken charge of this new field, and we feel assured that he will do efficient work for these churches. We hope to meet the people of the Salem Church quite frequently, in fact we see some of them almost every day in the city, and at their earnest solicitation we have promised them that we will not forget them, and that we will come and preach for them occasionally. It has always seemed to us that this church had a promising outlook if only the proper attention could be given it. Regular Sabbath services and more pastorial work is what this church needs. We shall pray for the continued prosperity and growth of this church.

IF you want to take your dinner or supper out, go to William Kirkam's on West Columbia street. They furnish regular hotel meals and served in the best style.

DEPARTED.

JAS. MONROE FAIRFIELD, died Friday evening, May 17th, at his home near Hadley Station. He was born at Kennebunk Port in the state of Maine, April 30th, 1826, He was aged at his death, 69 years and 17 days.

He was the son of Captain Asa and Olive Fairfield. The Fairfield family was one of the pioneer families of Allen County and of this city. The family came to this county as early as the year 1835, when Fort Wayne was only a small village. Mr. James Fairfield was 9 years old when the family came to this city and has ever since open a resident of Allen County.

May 6th, 1846, he was married to Miss Jane E Thurbur. The wife, six daughlers and one son remain to mourn his death.

Because of his long residence in the county, Mr. Fairfield was well known and he was a highly esteemed and well respec, ted citizen. We had the privilege of being with him upon several occassions during his illness and we were glad to learn of the comfort he found in trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ. We found that at a very early age in life, he made a public profession of faith and he himself assured us, that he had always continued in his faith in the Lord. Where with him but a few days prior to his death, we felt confident that he had made his peace with God and was ready for the change which was sure to come in a very short time. It is very, very sad indeed, when death comes into our homes and our loved ones are taken away from us, but it is a great comfort for us to have the assurance when they leave us that they are prepared for death, trusting in the Lord and that they are going to that home beyond, where we may meet them again and know them as our kindred. The funeral services werr held at the Grace Reformed Church, on Monday afternoon, May 22nd. A large number of neighbors and friends from the community in which Mr. Fairchild resided, as well as from the city, were in attendance upon the services. The remains were interred in Lindenwood Cemetery.

We pray that the Lord may comfort the hearts of these bereaved friends and especially the daughters who are in the far West and who could not be at home during their fathers illness and death.

REV. S. A. NORTHROP, pastor of the Baptist Church, has accepted a call from the First Baptist Church at Cincinnatti. He will go to his new field of labor, the 1st of October. Brother Northrop has been deservedly popular and successful in his work in Fort Wayne and we regret very much to see him leave our city. When he goes he will leave many warm friends here, but we hope that he may soon find many friends where he is going and that the Lord will open for him there, a great door of usefulness.

P. H. HYMAN & Co., have bought the stock of hats and gent's furnishing goods of Meyer & Nieman, and are conducting the business at the old stand, 142 Calhoun Street. The two sons, Phillip and Edward are in the store, and are very clever and obliging salesmen. They are selling goods at very low figures, when you need anything in their line, call and see them. We shall be glad to see the boys doing well and they are worthy of a liberal patronage.

W. V. ZARTMAN of Columbus, Ohio, whose name has frequently appeared in the VISITOR is the efficient Superintendent of the Sabbath School of the Wilson Ave. Reformed Church of that city. We learn that the school is in a very thriving condition.

FRED GUMPPER has taken a position in the office of Neireiter & Gumpper, and is getting his hand in as a special scribe.

THE ladies are having very enjoyable times at their Missionary Teas. The two held recently, the one at the home of Mrs. A. C. Katt, and the other at the home of Mrs. S. Dukeman, were very pleasant gatherings.

MRS. SAFFEN has been quite ill, but is again some better, and it is now hoped that she may soon recover. For several days her condition was a very critical one.

DR. G. S. FARQUHAR, Glenford, Ohic, a specialist in treatment of chronic diseases, is the inventor of what he terms, the "Headache Elixir." He insures that the elixir will cure all cases of sick-headaches no matter how severe or of how long standing. Cures when other remedies fail. While at Glenford recently, we had the privilege of talking with a number of persons who have taken the treatment and they could not comment too highly upon the merits of the cure. The elixir and tablets will be sent to any address for $2.00.

THE heat and drought have been prolonged and severe. We are only surprised that vegetation has survived so well. But it seems in the extreme drought, vegetation has been sending its roots deep into the soil to gain moisture. This is one of the secrets of endurance and thrift in the Christian life. "And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

DURING our visit at Glenford, we were glad to meet the newly elected pastors of the Glenford and Thornville charges. Rev. D. W. Loucks is pastor of the Glenford charge, and Rev. Rohrbaugh of the Thornville charge. Both these young men are entering upon their work with encouraging prospects before them.

Little change since last report. The Chinese and Japanese war has kept the market stiff, however no advance in price. As the market is an extensive one that, notwithstanding the war, free shipments are arriving from both China and Japan. Teas at these prices are much more economical than Coffee. A 20c Tea will got twice as far as a 20c pound of Coffee. Our Tea trade has grown to large proportions. We continue to sell at low prices. We purchase direct from the importers and sell direct to our customers, in this way saving to our customers the profits of the jobber and wholesale merchant which are at least 10c 150 per pound each. This our customers receive the benefit of, hence the explanation of our sability to sell so cheap.
